Job Scope

The primary responsibility of a Custodian is to perform cleaning work in buildings and to ensure the security of buildings while working. This work is highly structured and approval is required for all deviations from assigned work. Discretion and independence of action is exercised when prioritizing daily tasks and activities. This worker performs a variety of standard cleaning work to ensure clean and safe environments in the assigned building. This worker will work alone, and will assist senior staff and specialized contractors/service providers to complete special assignments (i.e.: carpet cleaners, waxing specialists). Routine cleaning includes cleaning offices, classrooms, washroom facilities, boardrooms, storage rooms, fitness equipment, etc. and also includes cleaning multipurpose areas, kitchen areas, hallways, stairwells, etc. Duties are outlined by the supervisor and detailed schedules of duties are provided for keeping work logged and on track. This worker is responsible for all assigned areas of the assigned building. This worker will cross-train with other custodial workers in other units and will ensure that all work guidelines and safe work practices are followed. A key element of success for this worker is the development of an awareness and knowledge of the relevant work and cleaning methods, and of reference materials to assist in addressing problems, challenges and issues; references include written policies, procedures and guidelines, as well as maintenance schedules and check lists, and manuals and reference handbooks, and WHMIS manual and data sheets. Other related duties as required.

Candidate Profile

The Custodian has a good level of energy to perform the work, and has good interpersonal skills including good listening skills to gather information and to ask questions in order to carry out assigned tasks and to provide routine information to other employees. The Custodian has good written and verbal communication skills and communicates with the supervisor, co-workers, and maintenance staff to obtain information, supplies, tools, equipment and/or advice or helps to solve problems or issues, and may occasionally have contact with other building workers, occupational health and safety committee members, and the general public.

Preferred Qualifications

- Mature individual and able to read and write standard words.
- Good communication and listening skills; ability to asks questions for clarification.
- Ability to interact well with other works and the public.
- Compliance with BC Immunization program, TB screening, and FNFN's requirement for COVID-19 vaccinations
- Satisfactory completion of a Police Information Check.
- Valid Class 7 or 5 BC Driver's License and drivers abstract.
