

Are you entitled to register under the Indian Act?

Bill S-3 changed the Indian Act to remove known sex-based inequities from the registration provisions. More people are now entitled to register.

Why was the Indian Act changed?

When an entitled woman married a non-entitled man before 1985, she lost her right to registration. That loss also affected her descendants' rights to registration.

Bill S-3 was introduced to fix the impacts of this loss of status for all affected descendants.

You may now be entitled to register:

If you have a parent, grandparent or ancestor who was affected by sex-based inequities in the Indian Act.

If anyone from your immediate or extended family is registered or entitled to be registered.
