SUMMARY / SCOPE

In accordance with established vision and values of the Fort Nelson First Nation Health and Wellness Program, and in partnership with the First Nations Health Authority, Northern Health, and local First Nations communities; the primary responsibility of this position is to provide a continuum of services to outpatients (adolescents and adults) within the Mental Health and Addictions Program. This position provides comprehensive assessment, care planning and treatment coordination, for designated clients and their families, through an interdisciplinary team approach on both an individual and group basis. This Professional should be well versed in psychological assessments, and diagnoses and treatment frameworks.

Working collaboratively with other health care providers and a multidisciplinary team, the (Mobile Support Team) Mental Health & Addictions (MHA) Clinician provides direct psychosocial care, counselling and group work, system navigation and advocacy, and education and linkage to relevant specialized complex care resources, while facilitating client self-management. The Mental Health & Addictions Clinician is responsible for providing and developing services to maintain or improve the health and social well-being and functioning of the identified population.

Specific duties and responsibilities of this position include: clinical assessment of the comprehensive mental health needs of persons dealing with complex issues; provide advanced clinical interventions to persons through a broad range of therapeutic frameworks; research, analyze, design and develop and implement therapy frameworks to address the specific identified mental health needs of the population served; provide education sessions and consultation; provide consultation on cultural and clinical interventions; and crisis response when communities are impacted by critical events.

The Clinician functions autonomously, and may provide direct supervision of provisionally registered social workers, or practicum students. This position maintains accountability to either the BC College of Social Workers (BCCSW); or the BC Association of Clinical Counsellors (BCACC). Other related duties as required.
