

THRIVING AND SURVIVING

workshop

THRIVING AND SURVIVING: THE FIRST TWO YEARS OF PLACEMENT

Our newest workshop prepares parents and caregivers for the often challenging first two years of a placement.

There are a number of issues and behaviours that are relatively predictable in the first two years. This interactive workshop ensures families are prepared with realistic expectations and Knowledge, and are equipped with hands-on strategies and skills.

---

TIME/DATE

Fort Nelson Wellness Centre, Meeting Room
Wed, Oct 10, 2018
9 am- 4:30 pm (1 hour break plus two 15 minute breaks)

Meal and refreshments to be provided by Fort Nelson First Nation as well as child care and transportation!

Thank you to the Fort Nelson First Nation for providing the workshop space and hosting us on their Treaty 8 Territory.

Adoptive Families
Association of BC

For more information/registration please contact: Brandi Kennedy, Keyworker at: bkennedy@bcadoption.com/ 778.256.5350 Or Carol at Wellness: 250-774-2300

Carol 250 500-1086

