Supervisor:	Director	Hourly Rate:	$23.73
Key Duties:	Outreach, Support, Programs, Services	First Posted:	2022-03-30
Effective Date:	Immediate, full time permanent	Closes:	When filled

Job Scope

The Youth Outreach Worker is responsible for providing individual supports and group programs and services with an aim to increase family development, preservation, and reunification. The well-being of families will be supported through ongoing culturally relevant services for children, youth, and families, with a primary focus on the safety and well-being of children and youth. Support services will aim to improve and expedite case planning and help mitigate risk through effective decision-making. The service is also focused on improving outcomes for children in care by providing services and supports to safely return them to the care of their parents, or where that is not possible, to find temporary or permanent placements for them with relatives and/or community members that will be in their best interests. The Youth Outreach Worker will:

- Promote families' use of their own family support circles
- Provide supports to families going through MCFD court process
- Aim to increase foster care homes in the community
- Aim to increase community supports for youth

This employee will plan, develop and implement support services, and will also link program outcomes to other services and family support staff within the department, working collaboratively to support enriched life skills and personal well-being for children, youth, and families. The employee will facilitate access to specialized home and community-based supports and prevention services, and will develop programs that promote healthy lifestyles and relationships for children, youth, and families. The employee will work at various locations in the community, both in office and out in the field, and will occasionally travel to meet clients in their homes or other designated area/facilities, as needed. Other related duties as required.

Candidate Profile

This employee has a positive and upbeat personality with a good level of energy and keen eye for detail. The employee is able to work independently while positively contributing to a teamwork environment.
